ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I am indebted to Mr. W. W. Chapin of Providence, R. I., for valuable aid in reference to the Rhode Island Comstocks. Mr. Noah D. Comstock of Arcadia, Wis., collected prior to his death in 1890 a large amount of information relating to the Comstock Family, which has been used.

Of books, Austin's Genealogical Dictionary of Rhode Island; Arnold's Vital Records of Rhode Island; Caulkin's History of New London; Baker's History of Montville, Ct.; Selleck's History of Norwalk, Ct.; and Hall's History of Norwalk, have been found valuable.

EXPLANATORY

In the following record a serial number has been prefixed to the name of each Comstock child when it first appears. If that child appears later as the head of a family the same number is prefixed but in heavy faced type.

To pass from the head of a family to his father, one must pass from his serial number in heavy type to the same number in light type.

To find the children of a child, find the family whose number follows the child's name.

Generations from William[1] Comstock of New London are indicated by small figures.

The usual abbreviations, b., m., d., dau., res., are used for born, married, died, daughter, and residence.

The dates given for births may sometimes be of baptisms and dates of marriage, dates of recording.

INTRODUCTION

In Devonshire, England, there is a little village called Culmstock, with a few hundred inhabitants, lying on the small stream Culm, from which it derives its name. It is called Colmstocke in the Domesday Book in the time of William the Conqueror.

From this village the name Comstock is doubtless derived.

Exeter is about twenty miles from Culmstock. The Cartulary of St. Nicholas Priory, Exeter, No. 365, has as witnesses in 1241, Will. de Widebeere, Godefrido de Kelli, Petro de Columstock, Nicho. Bissoph.

The History of Taunton (ten miles from Culmstock) gives among the early priors of Taunton, Richard de Colmstoke, elected 1325; Ralph de Colmstoke, elected 1331, resigned 1338.

The parish register of Stoke St. Gregory (nineteen miles from Culmstock) gives:

"Thomas, son of Thomas Coomstocke baptised ye 30 day Oct. 1636.

"John, son of Thomas Coomstocke baptised ye 18 day Sept. 1646.

"Thomas Cumstoke was buried 30 Sept. 1658."

The Harleian Society publications give among the burials of the church of St. Martin-in-the-Fields, London:

"Mariana Combstocke, 30 Novr 1595.

"Joannes Combstocke, 26 Aug. 1597.

"Johannes Comstock, 1 Nov. 1603."

These quotations show that the name existed in England at the time of the settlement of New England.

About 1895, an examination at the Somerset House, London, of the Record of Births in England and Wales showed scarcely one birth per year. The name in England has therefore nearly died out.

There is a story of the existence in the Muniment office at Frankfort, Germany, of pedigrees of nine generations of Komstohks prior to Charles von Komstohk, a baron of the Roman Empire, who escaped to England in 1547, because implicated with other noblemen of Austria and Silesia in the von Benedict treason.

Careful search at Frankfort-on-the-Main, and at Breslau, fails to find any trace of a Baron von Komstohk, or of a von Benedict treason. Dr. John Lee Comstock of Hartford, Ct., accepted the story. His sister, quoting it, says 5 Sept., 1865, "from my deceased brother I received what I have written, who as he informed me, upon a visit to Frankfort on the Main by a gentleman whose name I do not recollect, copied and gave it to him."

Dr. Comstock was probably misinformed by this unknown person.

The earliest known record of a Comstock in this country is in the will of Henry Russell of Weymouth, Mass., 28 November, 1639. He gives to his wife Jane "the remainder of his time to be served by my servant John Comstock." Apprenticeship of sons till the age of twenty-one was common in those days.

The Wethersfield record gives, 2d month, 28th day, 1641: "the lands of William Comstock which he purchased of Ric. Milles lying in Wethersfield on Connecticut River."

Beginning in 1635 and 1636 there was a considerable emigration from Watertown, Mass., and its vicinity to Wethersfield, Windsor, and Hartford, Ct., and William[1] Comstock may have been among the emigrants.

FAMILY 1. 1. WILLIAM[1] COMSTOCK, m. (2) Elizabeth—Miss Caulkins (History of New London) says that he lived to old age on Post Hill near north corner of Williams and Vauxhall Sts., New London, Ct. Stiles (History of Wethersfi ld) says we may be pretty sure that William Comstock was among the 26 from Wethersfield, Ct., in the expedition commanded by Capt. John Mason which captured the Pequot Fort at Mystic, Ct., 26 May, 1637, killing about 500 Indians.

The Wethersfield record gives "The 2d month & 28 day 1641, the lands of William Comstock which he purchased of Rich. Milles . . . on Connecticut river . . . one piece whereupon a barn with two cellars and other buildings standeth as it is now fenced . . . two acres or more . . ."

Also, "the 12th month 10th day 1643, upon? . . . 'the land bought by Andrew Langdon of William Comstock. One piece whereon a house standeth ceu three acres more or less . . ."

Richard Mylls was plaintiff against Willi Combstocke and John Sadler, defendants, in an action for slander, 1 Aug., 1644, before the Court of Elections, Hartford, to the damage of 200 pounds.

At a Particular Court, Hartford, 7 June, 1649, William Comstock, Mr. Trott, and Sam. Smith, Jr., are freed from their recognizances for the appearance of said Comstock.

At Pequot (later New London), 13 June, 1655, William Comstock and others agree to accept judgment of Court of Magistrates sitting at Pequot, and in matter of gifts, grants, or rights of land at Pequot.

William Comstock, 21 June, 1647, was granted a lot (at Pequot, by the town); also 10 A of upland; also 10 A. on east side of the great river (Thames). On 2 Dec., 1651, he was granted by the town, 20 A. at Nahantic (Niantic); 8 A. of upland; 100 A. upland laid out to Mr. Tinker; 100 A. upon a high hill up Mohegan bounded by land laid out to Mr. Picket.

William Comstock at New London town meeting 10 Nov., 1650, voted to cooperate with John Winthrop in erecting a corn-mill. In July, 1651, with others he "wrought" on mill-dam. The dam and mill are still in use.

Old goodman Comstock was chosen sexton to order youth in the meeting, etc., 25 Feb., 1662; the title "old goodman" would indicate a birth as early as 1590. The 25 Jan., 1659, William Comstock of New London deeds 8 A. in New London to Will Houge, carpenter, with consent of "Elizabeth my now wife."

That William[1] had children John[2] and Daniel,[2] is shown by a deed of 4 Dec., 1694 in which William[3] Comstock of Lyme (son of John[2] of Lyme) and Daniel[3] Comstock of New London, (son of Daniel[2] of New London), convey "land at Nyantik which said land was given to our grand father William Comstock deceased, by the town of New London," 20 acres. The same 20 A. were granted by New London to William Comstock 21 June, 1647. Savage (Genealogical History of New England) says John Comstock who was at Weymouth, Mass., in 1639, sat down at Saybrook, east part, now Lyme. Mr. S. C. Newman states that Daniel Comstock moved from Providence to New London. Daniel Comstock of Providence, 19 Feb., 1645, accepts from Providence a free grant of 25 A. of land. The 24 of June, 1648, Daniel Comstock with other young men were arrested in Providence for giving a false Indian alarm. In 1660 Daniel Comstock was paid twenty shillings by New London for killing a wolf toward Mohegan. The facts that Samuel[2] and Daniel[2] had adjoining lots in Providence; that Samuel[2] named a son Daniel[3]; that Daniel[2] named a son Samuel[3]; that William[1] and a Samuel were both in the jurisdiction of Hartford in 1648; that the Samuel who was in the Sybando expedition in 1653 (Note I) was in that year both at New London and Rhode Island; give rise to the presumption that Samuel[2] of Providence was the son of William[1] of New London.

Christopher Comstock of Fairfield (and later of Norwalk, Ct.) made an affidavit about visiting good wife Knapp, charged with being a witch, at New Haven, 29 May, 1654. He named three of his children Elizabeth, Daniel, and Samuel, these being the names of the wife and two sons of William[1] Comstock of New London. William[1] and Christopher[2] were both in Connecticut in 1654. These facts suggest that Christopher[2] was a son of William.[1]

Elizabeth Comstock m. Edward Shipton of Saybrook in Jan., 1651, and d. July, 1659. She is supposed to be the daughter of William.[1]

These are the reasons for supposing that John Comstock of Weymouth, Mass., and Lyme, Ct.; Samuel Comstock of Providence, R. I.; Daniel Comstock of Providence, R. I., and New London, Ct.; and Christopher Comstock of Fairfield, Ct., and Norwalk, Ct., were sons of William[1] Comstock of New London.

We have then for his children:

2. John,[2] m. Abigail ——. Died 1680, Lyme, Ct. FAMILY 2.
3. Samuel,[2] m. Ann ——. Died about 1660, Providence, R. I. FAMILY 3.
4. Daniel,[2] m. Paltiah Elderkin, and d. 1683, at New London, Ct. FAMILY 4.
5. Christopher,[2] m. Hannah Platt, and d. 28 Dec., 1702. FAMILY 5.
6. Elizabeth,[2] m. Edward Shipton of Saybrook, Jan., 1651, and d. July, 1659.

FAMILY 2. 2. JOHN[2] COMSTOCK [William[1]], m. Abigail——; d. 1680 at Lyme, Ct.

Savage (Genealogical History of New England) says John Comstock, who came to Weymouth, Mass., in 1639, sat down at Saybrook, east part, and had Abigail, b. 12 Apr., 1662. Johns'[2] widow Abigail m. 18 Jan., 1680–1, Moses Huntley.

Henry Russell of Weymouth, Mass., in his will of 28 Nov., 1639, gives to his wife "the remainder of his time to be served by my servant John Comstock." John[2] was probably an apprentice at that time.

Quarter Court in Hartford, Ct., 1st Thursday in March, 1655–6. Edward Messenger plaintiff contra John Comestock defendant, in an action of debt to the value of 10 pounds.

Particular Court, Hartford, 26 May, 1663, John Comstock plaintiff contra Matthew Griswold defendant, in an action of the case for slandering him in reference to some clapboards, and his wife in open court, to the damage of 50 pounds.

John Lay, 20 Oct., 1661, bought of Nicholas Jennings of Saybrook lands partly bounded by John Comstock's land.

John Comstock, 23 Apr., 1662, deeded Amos Richerson (Richardson?) of Boston, house & lot of 20 A. . . . 30 A.of meadow on Island . . . "all that I bought of Thomas Bliss."

John Comstock of Lyme and wife Abigail, 1 May, 1680, deeded to John Larrabee 9½ A. of upland in a plain called the planting field. This deed was acknowledged 20 Sept., 1680 by Abigail late wife to John Comstock, before Matthew Griswold.

Moses Huntley of Lyme, 12 June, 1699, declares "being sensible that the lands formerly belonging to John Comstock late of Lyme, deceased, was left in the hands of my wife relict to the said John Comstock, and are now unlegally and contrary to law disposed of the same, do hereby enter my caveat and do warn all persons whatsoever of making any alienation of said lands."

18 Jan., 1702–3, laid out to estate of John Comstock (of Lyme) deceased, and taken up by Benjamin Noyes, 64 A., "on both sides of Beaver river . . . bounded north with lands of William Comstock . . . being upon the account of the 4th Division in the last part of the said Comstock's right, and Abigail, Elizabeth, Hana, and Samuel Comstock."

John[2] Comstock had the following children:

7. Abigail,[3] b. 12 Apr., 1662; m. William Pike (or Peak), 24 June, 1676.
8. Elizabeth,[3] b. 9 June, 1665; m. Joseph Miner.
9. William,[3] b. 9 June, 1669; m. Neomy Nyles. FAMILY 6.
10. Christian,[3] b. 12 Dec., 1671.
11. Hannah,[3] b. 22 Feb., 1673; m. Robert Mentor.
12. John,[3] b. 31 Sept., 1676; m. Mary Lee. FAMILY 7.
13. Samuel,[3] b. 6 July, 1678; m. Martha Pratt. FAMILY 8.

FAMILY 3. 3. SAMUEL[2] COMSTOCK [William[1]] of Providence, R. I., d. about 1660. He m. Anne, who was living 10 Feb., 1667. She m. (2) John Smith the mason.

The court records of Hartford show that Samuel Comstock gave recognizance 1 March, 1648, for 10 days of good behavior and for satisfying what damage Mr. Robins shall sustain for the want of his servant. (Was Samuel apprenticed to Mr. Robins, and a minor?)

As William Comstock was also at Hartford and Wethersfield, Ct., 1641–1649, and later at New London, where he died, Samuel of Providence is probably his son.

When, in 1653, war with the Dutch seemed imminent, Samuel[2] Comstock went on the Swallow "frigott" to Block Island and seized the goods and people there appertaining to a Dutch Captain Kempo Sybando, and took them to New London, apparently to Governor John Winthrop. In the same year Samuel[2] was in Rhode Island. (Note I.)

Samuel Comstock bought of John Smith his house and lot in Providence, R. I., 1 March, 1654.

The Town Council of Providence took action about estates of Samuel Comstock and John Smith deceased, on 9 March, 1660. On 4 May, 1661, Anne Smith of Providence, widow of John Smith, formerly wife of Samuel Comstock, deceased, sold to Roger Mowry the house and home share of her husband, Samuel Comstock. It comprised four acres in a row of houses in the north part of Providence. Mr. W. W. Chapin states that it was near the corner of North Main and Abbott Streets, and probably bounded west by Sexton Street. Children:

14. Samuel,[3] b. 1654; m. Elizabeth Arnold. FAMILY 9.
15. Daniel,[3] b. 12 May, 1656.

FAMILY 4. 4. DANIEL[2] COMSTOCK [William[1]], m. Paltiah, daughter of John Elderkin. Caulkins (History of Norwich) says John Elderkin, carpenter and miller, the first proprietor of the "Cove," emigrated to America in 1637, coming first to Lynn and then to Dedham. Mr. W. W. Chapin of Providence, says he was in Providence "about 1650 when Daniel[2] Comstock was here. As Elderkin must have had a family at the time, this would furnish a motive for the migration of Daniel from Providence to New London." (See Note II.)

Daniel[2] Comstock, 29 Jan., 1646, acknowledges a free grant of 25 A. from Providence.

Daniel[2] Comstock, Providence, 24 June, 1648, and other young men arrested for giving a false Indian alarm.

Benjamin Smith and Dan. Cumbstock propound their houses with their land to the town (Providence) for sale, 2 June, 1655.

Ordered (Providence) that Hen. Neale have a six acre lot laid out to him adjoining to his meadow that he bought of Dan. Combstock Jan. 27, 1657.

19 Dec., 1658, New London has given Daniel Comstock 100 A. of upland, by the Sawmill brook.

Inventory, 13 Nov., 1683, of estate of Daniel Comstock, late of New London, deceased. Includes 150 A. bought of Mr. Loveland and 100 A. above Sawmill brook, also 100 A. given by the town above Sawmill brook, and forgotten in the inventory. 221 pounds, 17 shillings, and 6 pence. Administration to widow Paltiell to bring up children, till Court order otherwise.

Of the children given below those marked with a star are given in Blake's Later History of the 1st Church of Christ, New London, as the children of G. Comstock, and Baker's Montville follows Blake, calling their father Gideon. But as there is no other trace of such a Gideon, and as it is known that Daniel[2] had a son Daniel[3] and four daughters, the children below are probably all of Daniel.[2]

On Dec. 17, 1697, Peeter Strickland receipts to his brother-in-law Daniel Comstock, administrator of the estate of his father Daniel Comstock, for twelve pounds, for Samuel Young and Thomas Halliox of Southold, L. I., as their wives' part of the estate of their father Daniel Comstock, deceased.

Samuel Young and Thomas Halliox gave an order, 9 Oct., 1696, to their mother Paltiah Comstock, "to pay our patrimony due to us, to our brother Peter Strickland." Children of Daniel[2] and Paltiah:

16. *Daniel,[3] baptized 9 Apr., 1671; m. Elizabeth Prentice. FAMILY 10.

FAMILY 12.

FAMILY 5. 5. CHRISTOPHER[2] [William[1]], m. 6 Oct., 1663, Hannah Platt who was baptized 6 Oct., 1643. Her father was Richard t of Milford, Ct.

Christopher[2] lived in Fairfield and Norwalk, Conn. His will dated Norwalk 22 Dec., 1701; proved 4 Jan., 1702–3; gives to wife Hannah; to son Moses when 21; to son Samuel; to dau. Hannah Comstock; to dau. Mercy Comstock; to grandson Daniel, wife and son Samuel, executors. On 29, May, 1654, Christopher Comstock made affidavit about visiting good wife Knapp charged with witchcraft. She was executed. On 27 Jan., 1661, Christopher,[2] then of Fairfield, Conn., bought land of Thomas Betts. On 19 Sept., 1692, he was member of a grand jury for witches.

Christopher[2] Comstock of Norwalk was nominated for freedman 10 Oct., 1667. Christopher,[2] Oct. 14, 1686, was a deputy to the General Court; 16 Jan., 1694, he was one of a committee "to look out for and obtain a faithful minister" for Norwalk. Hannah (Comstock) Fenn, dau. of Christopher,[2] bought a Bible in 1732 dated 1727 for 2 pounds, 15 shillings, which she says she "yearned in her youth." In 1740 she gave it to her brother Moses, who gave it to his dau. Hannah, who m. Phineas Handford. She gave it to her granddaughter Hannah Handford who m. William Richards. The book then passed into the hands of William Richards, Jr., and now belongs to his daughter, Mrs. Charles Saylor. Hinman says Christopher[2] brought with him from England a silver tankard with his coat of arms upon it. His great-grandson Major Samuel Comstock gave it to the church at Wilton, Ct., and it was melted up.

Children of Christopher[2]:

29. Daniel,[3] b. 21 July, 1664; m. Elizabeth Wheeler; d. 1694.
FAMILY 13.

55. Samuel,[4] b. 14 Oct., 1709; d. 1 Dec., 1709.
56. Samuel,[4] b. 4 March, 1711; d. 1797. FAMILY 22.
57. Daniel,[4] b. 20 Sept., 1713; m. Sarah Pelton. FAMILY 22a.
58. Abigail,[4] b. 11 March, 1718.

FAMILY 9. 14. SAMUEL[3] COMSTOCK [Samuel[2]], b. 1654; m. Elizabeth Arnold 22 Nov., 1678; d. 27 May, 1727; she d. 20 Oct., 1747. She was b. in Watertown, Mass., in 1645, the dau. of Thomas Arnold of Cheselbourne, Dorset, England, and Phebe (Parkhurst). Samuel Comstock, 1 July, 1679, taxed 8*d.* 1699, 1702–7–8–11, deputy. 6 May, 1702, appointed on a committee by Assembly to audit the General Treasurer's account and colony debts. Apr., 1708, appointed on a committee to fix the rates of grain and other specie brought to the treasury. Was called captain at time of his death. Aug., 1710, Capt. Samuel Comstock ordered Henry Mowry of 2d Company to impress men to go to Port Royal. He had a long controversy with the town of Mendon over ownership of 900 acres of land on present State line between Massachusetts and Rhode Island. On 21 Nov., 1698, the selectmen of Mendon gave Samuel Comstock "free liberty to cut so much timber as will be necessary for their use viz.: to build the Saw mill and Dam at the Falls upon the Great River." May 6, 1707, Ensign Samuel Comstock was a deputy from Providence. Capt. Richard Arnold, Samuel Comstock, and others obtained, Apr. 14, 1707, a grant of land at Woonsocket Hill, R. I. Samuel Comstock and Richard Arnold (whose sister Elizabeth, Samuel married) were the first settlers at Woonsocket, R. I. Samuel[3] resided in Providence, but in 1731 a part was set off as Smithfield.

The will gives to his wife Abigail; the life use and improvement of my negro man Cæsar, my mulatto boy John, and negro woman, Bett. Abigail Brinsmade was b. 1691 and d. 16 Nov., 1766. William C. Bryant, in his Letters of a Traveller tells the following story of Moses[3]: "He prided himself on the strict and literal fulfilment of his word. On one occasion he had a law-suit with one of his neighbors before a justice of the peace, in which he was cast and ordered to pay ten shillings damages, and a shilling as the fees of court. He paid the ten shillings and asked the justice whether he would allow him to pay the remaining shilling when he next passed his door. The magistrate readily consented, but from that time old Comstock never went by his house. Whenever he had occasion to go to church or to any other place the direct road to which led by the justice's door, he was careful to take a lane which passed behind the dwelling and at some distance from it. The shilling remained unpaid up to the day of his death, and it was found that in his last will he had directed that his corpse should be carried by that lane to the place of interment."

His daughters, Sarah and Phebe, remained unmarried, and carried on a fine farm. They had a slave Onesimus bought for 39 pounds, 9 Aug., 1773. Both being mounted, he used to ride after Miss Phebe when she went into Norwalk. Phebe's will of 24 Feb., 1810, gives her servant Onesimus to her niece Phebe Comstock, and the will of the latter of 14 Nov., 1840, charges Darius Ferris with the care of Onesimus during life.

NOTE I

I am indebted to Mr. W. W. Chapin, of Providence, R. I., for the following information. William[1] Comstock and Kempo Sybada, a Dutch captain, were applicants for house lots at New London, Conn., before Feb. 25, 1650–51. (Caulkins, History of New London.)

Roger Williams, of Providence, wrote to John Winthrop, at Pequot (New London), July 10, 1654: ". . . I know not how far your judgement hath concurred with the design against the Dutch. . . . I must acknowledge my mourning for it when I heard of it at Portsmouth. . . . Sir, I mourn that any of our parts were so madly injurious to trouble you: I pity poor Sabando; I yet have hopes in God, that we shall be more peaceable and loving neighbors. . . ." (Mass. Historical Society Collections, 3d Series, vol. x., p. 3.) (Sybada or Sabando is also spelled Sebadoe.)

From the Court files of Essex Co., Mass. (ii., p. 96 and p. 99,), it appears that Capt. Kempo Sybando of Pequit, R. I. (New London), brought suit, Oct. 15, 1653, at Boston, against Edward Hull, Walter Joy, and Thomas Gould, for taking away all his goods in his trading house at Block Island. In this suit William Baker and his wife Mary testified that being at Kempo Sybando's in Block Island, Samuel[2] Comstock and others came up to the house; that Samuel[2] Comstock "told me he had a warrant from the Governor of Connecticut (John Winthrop) to fetch me off the island, because there was like to be a war suddenly betwixt the Dutch and the English, and therefore it was not fitting for a man and a woman so; so I replied that I durst not resist the Governor's warrant, and so prepared forth with, and with their help carried the goods aboard, so when I came aboard he told me Kempo Sybando was taken at Connecticut by Edward Hull, then he told me that I was taken as a prize together with the goods, showing me a large piece of parchment which he said was his commission, then I begged that they would save my life, so they promised to set me and my wife ashore where I would, so they set us ashore at Pequot, so when Mr. Winthrop had examined me, he commanded me and Mr. Daniel to go aboard and take account of the goods they took from me, and being aboard the master was absent, and neither him nor the key would be found. Dated in Warwick, 28 August, 1653."

Francis Bennett swore in Court before Increase Newell, 26 August 1653, that he and Samuel Comstock did jointly and severally buy of Richard George (of Boston), the bark called the Swallow, whereof Edward Hull went master.

Ralph Earle, Sr., of Portsmouth, R. I., deposed that "Samuel Comstock came to Rhode Island, with Edward Hull, upon the bark called the Swallow 'frigott'; of this bark Samuel Comstock was owner one eighth part, and was employed in and upon this bark upon a man of war design against the Dutch, and had the interest of one eighth part upon ditto design; who sold his interest unto Ralph Earle, and I Ralph Earle sold this eighth part of all as 'pryzeners' [?] that was due or [ ] had been taken, unto Edward Hull. . . . Edward Hull received two thirds of all the prizes and other goods, one third being for the bark the other third for the 'vittualing' . . . "

Acknowledged before William Stebbins, 12 Sept., 1653.

On May 18, 1653, the General Court of Conn. ordered that 60 men be pressed, with provisions for two months.

The Commissioners of the United Colonies, at this time in session in Boston, decided that "if God called the Colonies to make war against the Dutch," 500 men would be necessary, and apportioned 65 men to Conn. (Public Records of Conn., vol. i., pages 25, 241, 242.)

NOTE II

I am also indebted to Mr. W. W. Chapin for the following: (Early Records of Providence, vol. xv., p. 21.) "Mr. Dexter doth affirm yt Mr. Scott being also present he saw Mr. Robert Williams reele to & fro, like a drunken man, & Daniel Comstock went to help him that day the pinnis (pinnace?) was taken possession of. John Olderkin affirms yt there was a writing yt was in Robert Williams his hands yt he had the keeping of and was some way defeated of it which set him in a rage and then he would come at force & so John Olderkin came with him: and would have him go home with him or to his brothers: and he would not but would go abord again and as he was going he tumbled overboard and could hardly be recovered & so John Olderkin went his way & sat Daniel Comstock to look to him." Mr. Chapin says this was in the summer of 1648.

John Elderkin, (1616–1687) was in Dedham, Mass., in 1641, at Reading, in 1646, and in New London, Ct., in 1650, where he built the first church and first mill. (Atwater, History of New Haven Colony.)
